PUBLISHERS' ANNOUNCEMENT.

The publishers announce that the Buffalo Address Book and Family Directory, being the first undertaking of its kind of any magnitude, in this city, is necessarily somewhat incomplete and contains imperfections that future editions, and a more perfect appreciation of its usefulness on the part of the public, alone will correct.

The labor attendant upon the enterprise was stupendous. In order to insure accuracy, a printed blank was left at every house in the most thickly populated of the principal residence streets, and although the information desired was specifically stated thereon, through careless reading of it, or, in many cases, neglect to fill out the form at all, it was in the end found necessary to engage competent gentlemen to supplement the work of the printed slips.

If there are any—as there undoubtedly are—whose names do not appear, it must be attributed to the difficulties of the undertaking rather than to deliberate exclusion.

In several cases the information was refused, and in such instances the names were either omitted or the information gained at second hand.

In conclusion, the publishers would state that the object of the Address Book is not in any sense to draw arbitrary social boundary lines; but simply to give, in compact form, the names of householders with their residences and exact numbers for the convenience of their patrons and the public generally, to whom they trust it may prove an invaluable compendium of local information.

PREFACE.

:o:

The motive of the Buffalo Address Book and Family Directory is to supply the need that has been felt ever since the provincial aspect of Buffalo began to be merged into the larger identity of a flourishing and busy city of nearly two hundred thousand inhabitants.

One proof of the demand for such a handy compendium, or abbreviated city directory, lies in the fact that scarcely a sister city of equal enterprise is without its "Blue book" or family directory; another we shall hope to find when a few month's test has proved the inestimable value of ours to Buffalonians.

The Address Book is of a size and style suitable alike for the library-table and the office-desk.

It is intended for the use of business firms, charitable organizations, clubs and hostesses.

Much of the information which it contains, as it relates to clubs, to societies, to the public schools, and to the personnel of the press, is official and has never before appeared in this accessible form.

The classification by streets is supplemented by an alphabetical list, in order that when in doubt, a person's whereabouts may be quickly ascertained by referring to his name simply.

The city-map will commend itself especially to ladies who are district visitors for the charity organization.

The theatre diagrams are copies of the box-office sheets and will be found a great convenience to amusement lovers.

Taken in its entirety, it is believed that the Buffalo Address Book and Family Directory will not only be useful as a guide and reference-book, but attractive in itself as a summary of local information which comprehends many and diverse interests.

HANDY HINTS ON ETIQUETTE.

—:o:—

[A few general rules are here given, in the belief that they will prove of service in doubtful moments, by solving some of the minor problems of formal intercourse. Their brevity will at once commend them to the reader.]

CARD ETIQUETTE.

A medium-sized card, the engraving in simple script, and without flourishes, is now preferred. Do not deluge a family with cards. When admitted—no matter how many ladies there are in the family—only one card is given to the servant, and this card is not turned down. Not more than three cards should be left at the same time on the members of a family. In the United States but little significance attaches to the turning down of cards, though:—

Turning the upper right-hand corner of your card implies—A call in person. Upper left corner—Congratulations. Lower right corner—Adieu. Lower left corner—Condolence.

Turning the entire left end—A call on the family.

The latter form is the one most often used by Buffalo ladies.

To send a card, without calling, implies inability to call in person.

On gentlemen's visiting-cards, Mr. should be prefixed to the name.

The husband's card should accompany his wife's on all formal occasions, but it is no longer elegant for both names to be engraved upon the same card except directly after marriage.

The mother's and the eldest daughter's names are always engraved on the same card during the first season, and afterwards (if agreeable) in this form:—

MRS. WILLIAM HENRY MONTAGUE.

MISS MONTAGUE.

193 Pearl St.

or if there is more than one daughter in society, Misses Montague is proper.

The fashionable calling hours in Buffalo are from 2 to 5 P. M.

When a lady is known to have set apart a certain day in the week to receive callers, make your visit on that day, if possible.

Ladies living in the same neighborhood should have the same reception day.

In Buffalo, society ladies make a round of calls once during the season, usually just before Lent. Party calls are, however, made within a week after the affair, and upon guests in town within a week of their arrival. Congratulatory calls in person are due to the parents who have invited you to the wedding of their daughter as well as upon the bride.

Acceptances or regrets should be sent as soon as possible after receiving an invitation. If no regret is sent to a ball or party, it is understood that the invitation is accepted.

An invitation to a dinner, to a formal luncheon, or to a breakfast party should be answered on the day received. Always give a reason for declining.

On receipt of an "At Home," or Four o'clock tea card, no answer is required. If unable to attend, enclose your visiting-card in a small envelope, and send at the hour of the party.

At an "At Home," or "Four o'clock tea," upon entering leave your visiting card in the card receptacle in the hall. A "Four o'clock tea" demands no after-call. It is in itself a call. An "At Home," where the hours are extended into the evening, and the affair in all its accessories wears the aspect of a formal reception, demands an after-call.

The eldest daughter is always Miss Montague upon her cards, the second, Miss Kate Louise Montague.

As the city grows in size, it will doubtless become more and more the sensible fashion to send invitations, acceptances, regrets and P. P. C. cards by post, as is now done in other large cities.

Gentlemen, as well as Ladies, are expected to make their party calls within a month after the entertainment. Etiquette demands that they be made within a week, but where young men are engrossed in business, a little delay is excusable. In case of a failure to call, the hostess is at liberty to efface the offender's name from her list. If he cannot call, a card by post, or delivered in person by a female relative with her own card, is imperative.

ENTERTAINMENTS.

BREAKFASTS.

Any hour from half-past nine to eleven o'clock is a suitable time for giving a formal breakfast.

The invitations may be written or verbal, and need not be given out more than twenty-four hours in advance, or, to the utmost extent, five days.

The style of the invitation, if written, should be in the form of a friendly note, or a lady may use her visiting-card, with:—

Breakfast at half-past nine o'clock, January 29th.

The breakfast should not be elaborate, either as to the menu or the dresses of the ladies present.

The food is served from the side-board, or upon the table in courses, which however should be few in number, and the coffee, chocolate or tea service is placed in front of the hostess.

Pretty street-dresses for the ladies, and morning or frock coats for gentlemen, with light-coloured trousers, is the proper attire for a breakfast. An after-call is expected after a formal breakfast.

LUNCHEONS.

Luncheons are more frequently given than breakfasts in Buffalo, but in either case the forms are nearly the same. A ladies' lunch-party may be made as elaborate as a dinner-party, or it may consist of two or three simple courses dexterously served.

The hours for a lunch-party are from one to two o'clock. At a luncheon ladies wear demi-toilettes, black velvet or dark silk walking dresses, relieved by pretty lace, and a bonnet or not, according to the formality of the invitation. Quantities of flowers, cards and favors are used at an elaborate luncheon, as at a dinner, but good taste discourages a great variety of wines where ladies alone are present.

FOUR O'CLOCK TEAS.

Invitations to a Four o'clock tea are issued from twenty-four hours to a week in advance.

The hostess uses her visiting-card for this purpose, with:—

Tea at Four o'clock, in the lower left-hand corner, or she may use fancy illuminated cards, with a steaming tea-pot in the upper corner, or some other cabalistic device.

The real Four o'clock tea is the simplest of all entertainments possible. A bevy of young ladies, or two or three pretty matrons, are asked to take turns in presiding over the tea-table which should contain no greater variety than tea, coffee and chocolate, with biscuits, sandwiches, and fancy cakes, though some bountiful hostesses add to these, ices and salads.

Ladies go to Four o'clock teas in their handsomest walking dresses, and remain from half an hour to an hour. Gentlemen, if invited, go in morning dress.

RECEPTIONS AND AT HOMES.

The following is the usual card for a reception:—

MR. AND MRS. MONTAGUE VILLIERS

request the pleasure of your presence on Monday evening, January seventh, from eight until eleven o'clock,

or for an "At Home":—

MR. AND MRS. MONTAGUE VILLIERS

At Home,

Tuesdays, January 8th and 15th. 870 Delaware Avenue.

The "At Home," however, is seldom engraved upon a reception-card, except it be for a series of receptions after a wedding.

Less formal receptions or "At Homes" may be signified by writing the formula below the name upon the visiting cards.

Ladies in Buffalo often combine the afternoon and evening reception, by having the hours from five to nine, or five to ten. At ceremonious evening receptions, gentlemen appear in full dress, and ladies in rich brocades, velvets and satins, with dress bonnets.

The supper may be as elaborate as the hostess chooses to make it, and there should always be an orchestra.

PARTIES AND BALLS.

The evening party almost invariably includes dancing, yet the word dancing is usually engraved on the corner of the invitation, with the hour at which it is to begin.

Dancing and an elaborate supper constitute a ball.

Invitations are sent out from ten days to two weeks in advance.

It is scarcely necessary to state that a dancing assembly demands full dress on the part of both ladies and gentlemen.

The following is the formula:—

MRS. MONTAGUE VILLIERS
requests the pleasure of your presence on Wednesday evening, December first at half-past nine.

Dancing.

991 Franklin Street.

As no houses in Buffalo are built with ball-rooms, the drawing-room, contiguous halls, etc., are used instead, with a linen cloth stretched over the carpets, and the furniture mostly removed.

An unlimited quantity of flowers are used, and light drinks, such as punches, lemonade, and bouillon are dispensed throughout the evening.

Supper is served between eleven and twelve o'clock.

[DINNER GIVING.]

Invitations to a dinner are always given in the name of both host and hostess. If it be an engraved card or note, the name of host and hostess occupies one line, and the request follows, in smaller script, with the name of the invited person written across in a blank space arranged by the engraver. Below this are the date and hour of the dinner, thus:—

MR. AND MRS. LAURENCE BELL.

request the pleasure of

---

*company at dinner, on Tuesday, January 10th,
at seven o'clock.*

No. 99 North Street.

And if the dinner is given in honor of a particular individual, his name may follow the date on the line below, introduced of course by the words, to meet.

The following form is used in reply, which should be sent immediately:—

MR. AND MRS. JACKSON HURLBERT
accept with pleasure
 MR. AND MRS. LAURENCE BELL'S kind invitation to dine with them on Tuesday, the 10th inst.,
at seven o'clock

If unable to accept, send a refusal expressive of disappointment, thus:—

MR. AND MRS. JACKSON HURLBERT
regret that a previous engagement [or illness, or an unfortunate event]
prevents the acceptance of
 MR. AND MRS. LAURENCE BELL'S
very kind invitation for Tuesday evening, January 10th.

Of course intimate friends may write each other more informal regrets and acceptances.

To be prompt at a dinner-party is rigidly required.

Ladies and gentlemen are expected to be in full dress at a dinner-party.

The ceremony of taking people in to dinner is this:—

The host goes first, with the lady for whom the dinner is given; the hostess last, with the principal gentleman, all remaining standing by their chairs until the hostess is seated.

To attempt to enter into an exhaustive description of the various bills of fare, or the accessories of a dinner, would fill a good-sized volume, for it is the most elaborate and sumptuous of entertainments, and the hostess, who is not sure of her own composure, and of her servants, should not attempt to give dinner-parties.

WEDDINGS.

Wedding-cards engraved in plain script upon one sheet of paper are sent out at least ten days before the ceremony, and often two weeks in advance. Invitations to remote places are forwarded sooner.

The bride-to-be should leave her last visiting-card at the doors of her friends' houses at the time, or just before her wedding invitations are distributed; she does not enter except it be to visit an invalid or an aged lady. Although in many cases neglected, this call before marriage is one strictly demanded by etiquette.

The most elegant wedding invitations ever issued in Buffalo have been in the following form:—

MR. AND MRS. MORRILL F. MONTAGUE
*request the honor of your presence at the marriage of their daughter
MAUD CLARA to GUY LAURENCE, at Trinity Church on Tuesday, May twenty-second, at six o'clock. Also to attend a reception at their residence, from half-past six until half-past seven o'clock.*

The latter part of the formula might be omitted in case of a very large church wedding and small after-ceremony reception, and the reception-card be inclosed with the invitation to the wedding, for the benefit of the hundred or more invited to the house.

A less elegant but more generally popular form of invitation is the following:—

MR. AND MRS. MORRILL F. MONTAGUE
*request your presence
at the marriage of their daughter
MAUD CLARA and GUY LAURENCE
on Tuesday evening, May 22nd, 1883,
at six o'clock,
Trinity Church,
Buffalo.*

In this case also the card for the reception would be enclosed, as follows:—

*Reception
from half-past five until half-past seven,
174 Delaware Avenue,*

There are several ways of varying the formula of invitation to the church, but lack of space prevents us from entering more into detail. The safest course, however, in issuing invitations of any kind is to consult with a first-class engraver, whose business it is, to keep himself informed of all the newest usages.

It has become an unpleasant necessity to enclose a long narrow admission-card with the invitations to a church wedding. It should bear the following formula :—

Please present this to the Usher.

This is done in order to prevent a swarm of low-bred people, whose presence has not been requested, from filling the best pews, and crowding out the invited guests.

Rehearsals should always precede church weddings, which are now usually conducted in the English form, as follows :—

Just previous to the ceremony, the bridegroom, accompanied by his best man, enters the chancel, from the vestry-room, the officiating clergyman being already in his place and the two take their positions at the altar. The six ushers, dressed in frock-coats, gray trousers, and dark scarfs, if it be a morning wedding, or in full-dress, if it be in the evening—the same rule applying to the bridegroom and best man—form a procession at the left door of the church to lead up the bridal party. The ushers in pairs are followed by the bridesmaids in pairs. Then comes the mother of the bride with her eldest son, or some other male relative, and last the bride on her father's arm. In the chancel the groom comes forward, and, taking the bride from her father, leads her to the altar-rail, where both kneel for a moment's silent devotion, the members of the bridal-party forming a graceful group around them.

This order may be altered and diversified to suit the taste of the chief actors, and it is a very pretty fashion, where the chancel is spacious, for the nearest relatives to form part of the bridal procession and chancel tableau.

All churches, at present use the ring, and vary the sentiment of its adoption to suit the customs and ideas of their own rites.

It is seldom that the veil is now raised in church.

The bridesmaids usually wear bonnets, but they should not wear veils, for this article is a badge of distinction which belongs to the bride alone.

The ceremony over, the newly-married pair and their attendants march down the right aisle out of church.

At the reception, the bride's mother yields her place as hostess for once, and is always addressed after the bride.

If the wedding gifts are on exhibition good taste absolutely demands that the cards of the donors be suppressed.

It is the duty of the ushers to take the guests up to be presented, introducing each by name.

Weddings at home vary but little from those in church. An altar of flowers and a place for kneeling can be easily arranged at home. The space behind the altar need be no wider than is required for the clergyman to stand.

When the marriage-ceremony is concluded, the party turn in their places, and face their friends who wait to congratulate them. The floral-altar is usually pushed back against the wall after the ceremony.

Calls by all the guests upon the family of the bride, is a rigorous formality within ten days after the wedding.

IN GENERAL.

The word presence is now preferred to company.

The fashion of having groomsmen has passed away.

Say Yes, "Mrs. Blank", if you are conversing with a lady older than yourself. "Yes, Ma'am", and "Yes, sir", are now rather provincial and old-fashioned.

In inviting people to a large party, it is safe to invite twice as many as you expect, such is the percentage of those kept away by illness or accident.

In inviting to a reception at a small house, the avoidance of a crowd being an object, allow for the absence of one-third; that is if you want fifty invite seventy-five, and so on.

In inviting a gentleman for the first time to your house, the card of the head of the family should always be enclosed; but if it be an invitation to an entire family the card of both host and hostess.

Formerly it was the custom for a wife to take her husband's arm on entering a room ; but that is now old-fashioned. The lady enters first, the gentleman following.

In ascending a staircase, the gentleman should go up first, and not with, or after, the lady.

No man should ever put on a dress-coat by daylight in this country. He may, however, don it for a six o'clock dinner after which it will be the appropriate dress for a ceremonious evening call, and for all formal social gatherings. It is not however properly worn at the meetings of a literary club or at a parlor lecture unless the ladies also appear in evening attire.

Convenience and common sense will before very long assert themselves in Buffalo, it is believed, as they have already done in other large cities, in order to make it the custom to send notes of invitation, regrets and acceptances by post. There is no reason why all invitations to informal entertainments such as Four o'clock teas, luncheons, and the like, should not be mailed, and the postal delivery is certainly a more trustworthy medium than the district telegraph boy.

Never sign your name to a letter with Mrs., Miss, or Mr. prefixed. It is a sign of vulgarity for a married lady to sign herself,

Mrs. John Tilling.

In writing a business letter, or in writing to a stranger, who will not know whether to address you in return as Mrs. or Miss, give the address in full, after the signature; as :—

Very truly yours,

M. K. Tilling.

Address :

*Mrs. John Tilling,
1000 Franklin Street,
Buffalo, N. Y.*

If the writer is unmarried, she may simplify this by placing the Miss in brackets at the left of her signature as follows :—

Very truly yours,

(Miss.)

In this case she places the other part of the address, i. e. city, state, street and number at the head of her letter or below her signature.

It is admitted by all disinterested dealers that a STEINWAY PIANO which has been in use for years, will last longer and sell for more than a new instrument of other makers. It withstands the severest climatic changes, and can be found retaining its original qualities alike in the most rigorous Northern latitudes, or the damp and humid atmosphere of the Tropics, the dry air of the Mountains, and the moist and changeable atmosphere of the Lake Region and the Seacoast.
